TO THE LADIES.
INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPMENTS AND PERSONAL BEAUTY CONSIDERED IN CONNECTION WITH DOCT. FELIX GOURAUD'S SUIRITES.

The sculptor whose study is to imitate the external development of nature, portrays in his work the human form a broad and elevated mind, but sometimes necessary in the pursuit of a high order of mental faculty. If a fine intellect is a mark of intellect, it is no less an essential element of personal beauty, and it is of course to choose, and there are many such, of this prominent feature, though it is not the exuberance of a too luxuriant growth of hair, to remove that portion of an exterior which tends, in their case, only to deform. It can be done safely, speedily, effectually, and in accordance with directions, without the inconvenience, by Dr. Felix Gouraud's Deodorizing Powders. The use of the hair, when an ornament, or the short hair on the back of a ladies' head, when too apparent - the hair of a mole, or beard, when big upon the cheek, may all be removed, and eventually the roots destroyed, by the use of this preparation.

Manufactured by Dr. Felix Gouraud, 67, Walker Street, one door from Broadway, N. York. $1.00 per bottle.

GOURAUD'S EAU DE BEAUTE, OR TRUE WATER OF BEAUTE.
For removing Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Blotches, and all Cutaneous Eruptions, realizing delicate white cheeks, neck and arms, and effecting a healthy lovely appearance. It is $1.00 per bottle.

GOURAUD'S VEGETABLE ROUGE
Prepared materially from flowers and simples, giving a delicate carnation tinge to the cheek, imitable by perspiration or rubbing with a handkerchief or a linen cloth. It is 50 cents per bottle. To be had in Bangor at the sole appointment, Messrs. WHITTIER & GUILD, Druggists.

THE LION OF THE DAY.
THE OLD VEGETABLE OR GERMAN PILLS.
POSITIVE, OR NO PAY.

THEY are highly recommended by Dr. Valentine Mott, of the city of New York. A medicine to prevent the attacks of disease, to keep the system in healthy action, and to eradicate as soon as possible every disease as soon as it appears, has been the great study of medical men for many years without success. The subscriber, however, not expecting his Pills to cure all the ills which flesh is heir to, confidently recommends them as certain and efficacious in the following: Headache, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Cholera, bilious, remittent, and intermittent fevers, diseases of the Liver, and Spleen, Female Obstructions, Rheumatism, Foul Stomach, Dizziness of the Head, Loss of Appetite, Weakness, and trembling of the Limbs, Nausea, or sickness at the Stomach, Flushings of the Face, Summer Complaints, Measles, Scarlet Rash, and will be found invaluable in complaints of the Digestive Organs, and particularly those arising from impurity of the blood. As a preventive against Fevers, no persons should go to a warm climate without a box of these Pills; they are entirely of vegetable ingredients, and can be taken safely without fear. Price, 37 1/2 cents a box.

For sale at A. GEYER'S Drug Store, 104 Hanover street, corner of Salem street, Bangor, General Agent for the N. E. States, and may be had at most of the Drug Stores in the U. S. and in the Canada.

The genuine Pills have the written signature of HERRICK GRIFFIN on each box.

HUMAN HAIR.
Cleanliness of the Head & Hair.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c. should neglect the Head, the Hair, the most essential, the most exposed, and the most beautiful, when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandruff or scurf, with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm of Columbia. Ladies will make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly, No. If you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects, its sweet perfume.

A hundred articles have been put forth on the credit of this - the only first - the only really valuable article. A mass of testimony from all classes on these facts.

LOOK OUT. Counterfeiters are abroad; look always for the name of COMSTOCK & Co., on the splendid wrappers, and never buy it without that name.

[From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.]
We see by an advertisement in another column, that Messrs. Comstock & Co., the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city, whose hair was so nearly gone, as to expose entirely her phrenological developments, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not, in reality, very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and, after a year's fruitless resort to mis-called restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy and of raven blackness. We are not puffing - none of the commodity has been sent to us, and, indeed, we do not want any, for, though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through its virtues, hair enough, and of a passable quality of our own.

Boring Fraud.
The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used, unless it have the signature of COMSTOCK & Co. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

Family Medicine.
SIR I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as a family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons, as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them - they operate mildly, and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from 20 to 25 to $100 per year for medicines and physicians; since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Mrs. Bird of Providence says, that Lorraine's Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has surpassed any thing that has been brought to the public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

THE CONDITION.
The condition upon which nature gives health to man is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood. The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invariably commences when obstructions take place in the bowels.

The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables, all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.

LORRAINE'S PILLS,
OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE CURATIVE

OF THE French College of Health, in Paris.

THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.

SIR I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrophulous and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general inability of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure, to most of which I had recourse, without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

J. E. NEWHALL.

Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is worthy of notice.

SIR It took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came on which had great charms, and I enjoyed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state

The Extra Session and the State Paper.

The position of the Age, the State Paper, in reference to the Extra Session of the Legislature, is rather singular. The editor of that paper appears to labor to give the impression to members of the Legislature and the people of Maine, that on the assembling of the Legislature, at Augusta on the 18th inst the Governor is prepared to present them with a distinct proposition from Lord Ashburton for the settlement of the North Eastern Boundary and which they are expected to accept or to reject, and in the latter case to offer a proposition which they will forward to Washington. It also supposes that this proposition is of such a nature that it is not safe or proper to have it presented to the people for examination or discussion prior to the assembling of the Legislature. And that the deliberations of the Legislature will be carried on with closed doors, thus reviving all the unpleasant associations of previous secret sessions upon the subject of the Boundary. This view of the subject appears to us singular, because we had supposed that the merest tyro in political affairs understood the matter to be entirely different, that no distinct proposition had been made and that none would be made until there was sufficient authority vested in the general government to entertain the proposition, by commissioners or some other mode, by the States of Massachusetts and Maine.

If we are correct in this view of the subject then the editor of the Age talks upon a subject of which he is profoundly ignorant, or for party or personal purposes designedly misrepresents the matter, in order to defeat the great objects intended to be accomplished by calling the Legislature together and which have been thought of sufficient consequence to justify the expense which must necessarily be incurred.

We infer from the remarks of the Age that the editor is decidedly opposed to the Legislature choosing Commissioners with power to agree upon a settlement of the Boundary, if they see fit, without further reference to the Legislature or the people. It does not seem to be true in so many words but the inference seems to us very natural. In reference to this point we would remark that if the Age is in harmony with the feeling upon the Kennebec in this matter it must be entirely different from what it is in this part of the State. We venture to say that in this vicinity ninety-nine out of every hundred, of both political parties, whose opinions are worth anything, are in favor of the appointment of Commissioners of men who understand the matter, and from both political parties, and having them clothed with sufficient power, in their discretion, to agree to a settlement of this vexatious question of Boundary. It is this authority in the Commissioners to conclude what they talk about, that opens the door of hope, that a settlement may be effected. It is this alone, as we believe, that can take this question out of the hands of political partisans and have it settled to the best advantage to the State and Nation, if it is possible to have it so settled at all, and which seems probable from the fact of a Special Minister being dispatched to our government.

The talk then about a secret session and the dark hints, implied by the italics of the Age, as to the extent of power contemplated to be given to the Commissioners, are all exceedingly ill-timed, and if of any force should have prevented a call of the extra session, or they are bug bears thrown out in no very friendly spirit to the great object which we are satisfied the people of Maine wish to see honorably and fairly accomplished.

The Age has made a call upon our neighbor of the Democrat for an explanation of his opinions in the matter and we hope to-morrow to see a frank and manly article giving the public sentiment in this portion of the State.

It is perfectly absurd to suppose that a proposition for settlement has been made by Lord Ashburton before there was any one authorized to entertain it. And if such a proposition had been made it would not be necessary to appoint Commissioners to receive it as it could as well be transmitted through the mails. The reports that have been current about the character of the proposition and a conventional line, are all moonshine. The matter is resolved into this, or we are more ignorant in the matter than we ought to be, that the Legislature has been called together to decide whether in their opinion the interest which Maine has in the settlement of the Boundary line shall be vested in Commissioners chosen by the Legislature or appointed by their authority, and will the Legislature adopt the necessary measures to secure the appointment of such Commissioners. Upon both these propositions we hazard nothing in saying that the people in this part of the State decide in the affirmative.

The water in the chamberlain lake that was dried last fall, has, within two weeks, risen at least two feet. It is still covered with ice, which is thought will disappear about the 15th inst. The water has fallen considerably in the Mattawamkeag and all the tributaries of the Penobscot not fed by the large lakes that have had dams erected at their outlets. The deep snow in the vicinity of these lakes furnishes an abundant supply of water.

The article by Gen. Herrick in our paper to day on the "Effects of frost upon the roots of trees" is "one of much interest, and the well known ability of the author induces it to the consideration of all our readers."

Rhode Island.

The Legislature under the "People's Constitution" adjourned on Thursday last, to meet again on the 9th of July, after passing several important laws, and authorizing the Governor to appoint Commissioners to proceed to Washington, to inform the President that the government has been organized under the Constitution.

It comes quite natural for us to feel a deep sympathy with the suffrage party in Rhode Island. The end they aim at, a Constitution approved and ratified by the people, is what we should ardently and strongly approve. But it appears to us, according to the best light we have upon the subject that they are now trying to accomplish a right thing in a very wrong way, we may not however understand the matter fully but if we do we should prefer the legal rather than the revolutionary mode of obtaining a new Constitution.

Gov. Dorr of the suffrage party has issued his Proclamation that the government under the Constitution has been organized and calling upon the people to support it and to pay over what they may be owing to the proper officers.

Mr. Brown, arrested at Newport has given bonds. Mr. Barrington Anthony, the new Sheriff has been arrested on a charge of treason and bound over in the sum of $4000. He gave security. Dutce J. Pearce has also been arrested and given bonds. The Chronicle of Friday says "It is expected that Mr. Dorr will be arrested this afternoon warrants having been already issued against him and others. It is expected that Mr. Dorr intends going at once to prison."

These matters will all be settled by civil process without resort to the bayonet. The day has gone by for fighting.

We tender our thanks to Doct. McRuer for the loan of a late Liverpool paper received by the Caledonia. It speaks rather dispondingly of affairs in the East. Enraged and resolution it says, were never more required since the commencement of the English Empire in India.

The English sway in the East depends altogether on opinion and the idea of English invincibility is destroyed by the late events in Afghanistan, and fears are expressed that the many who have submitted to dominion will prove faithless. It seems that thirteen thousand men, women and children perished in the retreat from Cabool, and of these five thousand five hundred were British soldiers, well armed, many of them well mounted, carrying with them several field pieces and having a fair share of ammunition. The remainder who were slain, or perished in the snow, in a country six thousand feet above the level of the sea, were servants and camp followers, men, women, and children.

In China too, it is thought a few more victories even, would destroy their whole force. A few thousand bayonets can do but little against the population of an immense empire. The mere inertia of the Chinese is a serious obstacle, since if the war is protracted, these masses will be converted into soldiers by the very force of example.

We notice from another source, that the Ulster Times, on the authority of a letter says

"An action had taken place between our troops and the Afghans, in which we were victorious, killing 153, and wounding 300 of the enemy. Our loss was only three officers wounded slightly, two privates killed, and 20 wounded. Letters from Gen. Sale have been received up to the 30th ult. on which date the troops were in high spirits, having captured 175 bullocks, a great windfall for them."

The citizens of Providence intended to make a grand Civic and military display to escort Gov. King to his lodgings on his arrival from Newport on Friday.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Richardson of Winslow's Express for papers at an early hour on Saturday evening in advance of the mail.

We learn that Mr. Carlton Cross of Sebec died a few days since, with the brain fever, at one of the lumbermen's camps on the Allagash.

We cannot learn that there was any occasion for the alarm of fire last evening. Except that the woods in Brewer were on fire.

Virginia at the recent election has gone in favor of the opposition.

We have had two days of chilly, windy weather and now have a southerly rain storm.

Charles Lancel who was injured at the late fire is recovering.

The western mail arrived here on Saturday and last evening before nine o'clock.

Bangor, Saturday, May 7th, 1842.

Mr. Editor. As a large number of the young men of this City are desirous of forming a religious society, you would much oblige them, whose "spokesman" I am, by inserting the following in your paper of Monday.

With due respect,

Those young men who are desirous of forming a Young Men's Religious Society, for the purpose of having regular evening meetings, are requested to meet at the Vestry of the Hammond Street Church this (Monday) evening.

From Mexico.

Latest accounts from Mexico state that the Governor of Cuba had determined to break the Texan blockade of Mexico, and to sink any Texan vessel that attempted to maintain it. Extract of a letter from Matamoros, bearing date April 17th.

"Santa Ana is much dissatisfied with Gen. Arista, and disapproves of the late demonstration against Bexar. He has sent orders to Gen. Wall to go immediately to Monterrey, and assume command of the brigade placed under Vasquez for the protection of the frontier."

The garrison of Matamoros is daily reinforced. It is now 1200 strong, and will in a few days muster 2000 men. This force, added by the artillery in the place, will be quite sufficient to beat back the meditated assault of the Texan army.

As for the invasion of Texas, there are many indications that it will take place, yet the time is not yet ascertained.

The Effects of Frost upon the Roots of Trees.

MR. EDITOR. The season for planting and dressing our fruit and ornamental trees having now arrived, I submit a few hastily written remarks for the consideration of our tree-growing friends, should you find them worthy a place in your paper.

I had many years since ascertained that the growth and healthy condition of trees planted in the open ground, in this climate, were greatly promoted by frequent applications of earth about the roots and over the surface for a considerable distance from the tree - but I was not aware until very recently, of the full value of the practice, nor of the cause which rendered it not only beneficial, but highly important, if not indispensable, to the growth and development of its energies, and to the health and long life of the tree. To understand the propriety and fitness of the treatment suggested, it will be necessary to advert to the evil for which it is proposed as a remedy, viz. the gradual rising of the trunk from its natural bed, and the consequent protrusion of the large roots and the base of the trunk, above the surface of the ground, exposing to atmospheric influences and vicissitudes, those portions of the tree which nature has buried beneath the surface of the earth. This process is not the result of the growth and expansion of the roots, as has been usually supposed, but is referable to the action of our severe winter frosts. The tree is lifted from its bed, to which it does not return again. The frozen earth adhering to the roots, is loosened by the dissolving frost and the motion of the tree, and crumbling down fills the cavities beneath the roots and prevents their exact replacement in their former position. The same process is annually repeated, until the larger divisions of the roots, and the base of the trunk whence they spring are exposed, and the smaller ramifications are, raised, with the superincumbent earth, in the form of an elevated hillock. The trunk becomes defective, and presently the tree declines and dies, or is overturned by the wind, by reason of its insufficient hold upon the earth. It is from the same cause that the surface of all our forest lands is broken into hillocks and hollows, more or less abrupt as the soil is more or less susceptible of expansion by frost. Hence the excessive uneven surface of fit clay soils, and also the great difficulty of raising fruit trees on such soils.

In our forest lands, however, the annual up-lifting of the trees is mitigated and its destructive tendencies in some degree neutralized, by the shade of trees and shrubs, the mosses which envelop the otherwise naked roots, and by the falling leaves which spread their friendly covering over the surface. But our orchards and ornamental trees have no efficient protection of this kind. While they are exposed to a much greater intensity of frost than the trees of the forest, no natural process interposes to counteract or compensate the injury. If this view of an evil so common to our country and climate, be correct, the remedy can scarcely be mistaken. If we apply fresh coverings of earth as often as the swells and spurs about the base of the trunk appear above the surface, we are merely following the plain indications of nature. As regards the depth of earth required, we have only to consult the condition of the tree, the distance to which it is to be spread over the surface, must depend on the age of the tree and the extent of the roots, and in the absence of any certain rule, a distance from the tree, in feet, equal to its diameter in inches, may serve as an uniform, if not sufficiently accurate measure. The kind of earth is not very material, provided it is not clay. For young trees, good top soil is to be preferred, but for old trees, gravel, or any other coarse, porous soil, has been found equally beneficial with the richest compost. Now is the season of the year very important. The Autumn is usually the most convenient time, and as the new covering may serve as a partial protection, in its loose state, against the ensuing frosts of winter, this may be also the best time.

Should it be desirable to preserve the level of the surface unaltered, as on the side-walks of streets, or other nicely graded grounds, this should be provided for in planting. And here I would remark that no bene it will result from planting the tree deep in the earth, for, if it should survive this unnatural and suffocating process, the lower roots will die, and others will shoot nearer the surface, and will be exposed to the influences of frost as if planted in their natural position. The method pursued in the recent plantations on the common in Boston is believed to be the best that can be devised. A large and deep hole is made, and the tree is planted in the bottom of it, leaving an open, dish-like cavity, to receive the falling rain water for the present, and to be hereafter filled up as the condition of the tree may require. J. H. Hampden, May 3, 1842.

*In the Middle and Southern States where the frost does not heave the ground so as to disturb the roots, the trunk of the tree at the surface appears as if it would were it sawed off above the swells and spurs and set down upon the earth. No trees are blown up by the roots, there are no cradle knobs but the surface of the woodlands is as smooth as the cultivated fields.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 3d.

In the Senate the subject of the abstraction of certain letters, confidentially communicated to the Senate was again taken up. These letters related to the application for the office of Post Master at St. Louis, Mo.

The Senate got into a snarl upon this subject. Before they could get disentangled, one o'clock came, and Mr. Evans insisted on taking up the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill.

In the House, Mr. Adams presented a petition of 12b masons, &c. praying an appropriation for the completion of the Public Buildings in Washington, in order that they and their families might obtain bread by labor.

The House have finally passed the Apportionment Bill. The amendment proposed by the Committee on Elections, directing the legislatures of the several States to divide them into single Congressional districts out of contiguous territory, was adopted by a vote of 101 to 99 in the House, and in Committee of the Whole by a majority equally small. The ratio of representation is 50,179 giving a House of 306 members. No State loses any thing, and there is an increase of sixty-four upon the present House. New England gains 4 two in Maine and two in Massachusetts. New York 8. Pennsylvania 7. Ohio 11, and so on. The greatest per cent increase is in Michigan, which goes from 1 to 4. The impression seems to be that the ratio will not be changed in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 4

In the Senate, the day was mainly spent in debate on an amendment to the Appropriation bill moved by Mr. Woodbury, to restrict rigidly the right of the Executive to appoint special messengers abroad, diplomatic agents, &c. All the strength of the Senate came out upon it. Mr. Buchanan, to show its impolicy, stated that while he was Ambassador at St. Petersburg, his despatches from Washington sent by mail were regularly opened by every European Government through whose territory they passed, so that when they reached them the eagle on the seal was torn, and the contents looked like a turkey-buzzard. No European Government thought of sending despatches by mail. He (Mr. B.) was aware that a wide discretion in this matter might be abused, but, knowing what his experience had taught him, he could not vote for this amendment. It was rejected. The bill finally passed, and was returned to the House for concurrence in the Senate's amendments.

In the House, the motion of Mr. Wile to print the Reports of Messrs. Kelly and Stewart, of the New York Custom House Commission, was again taken up, and occupied the attention of the House during the day.

Judge Uno, Wood of Ky made a strong speech against the power of the President to constitute such Commissions of Investigation as this on the New York Custom House. Mr. U was heard with much attention.

Mr. Stanly of N. C. made a bitter personal reply to a speech equally savage from Mr. Wise day before yesterday, in which he balanced the account effectually. Wise interrupted him in the midst of his philippic. Stanly calling him a bull-dog, which Wise retorted with the imputation of coward. The Speaker repeatedly called to order. When Stanly concluded, Mr. Cushing obtained the floor and without concluding he yielded to a motion to adjourn.

Canada.

The Lower Canada papers countenance the opinion that the seat of Government for both Provinces will be removed to Toronto, that the Legislature will be called together next August, and that all the political exiles, with two or three exceptions, will be allowed to return to their country by an ample and complete amnesty and oblivion to all past offences and dissensions.

THE MOST HIGHLY APPROVED MEDICINE
Now in general use for Coughs, Colds and all Diseases of the Lungs.
THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALM
Is believed to be the most popular medicine ever known in America for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, or Phthisis, Consumption, Whooping Cough, and Pulmonary Affections of every kind.
Extracts from Certificates.
Dr. Samuel Merrill of Concord, N. H. writes "that he is satisfied the Vegetable Pulmonary Balm is a valuable medicine, having been used with complete success in cases which had previously resisted the most approved prescriptions."
Dr. Truman Abell of Lampeter, N. H. writes that he confidently recommends its use in all complaints of the chest, as equal if not superior to any other medicine with which he is acquainted.
Dr. Amos H. of Franklin Mass. writes that after having prescribed the usual remedies without relief, and having consulted with several eminent Physicians, he decided to try the Vegetable Pulmonary Balm. He had the box sent, and recommended it as a safe remedy, and a successful one.
His knowledge of it has never disappointed the reasonable expectations of those who have used it.
The Balm is particularly recommended against the Phthisis, Consumption, or Asthma, which have partially cured it. It is assumed to be a genuine article.
It is assumed that it is not genuine unless it is in both of the bottles, and is of a warm, resinous or balsamic taste. It is found in all the stores of the country. All letters of inquiry after the date of the 18th of May will be answered by the writer. Prepared by R. E. WING & C. CUTLER (late Low & Reed, Wholesale Druggists, 51 Chatham Street, Boston and 141 1/2 Broadway, New York) and Country Merchants generally. Price 50 cents.

Double the quantity and better quality than any other for the price!!
LIVER COMPLAINTS, AND ALL SICKNESS & DISEASES.
DR. LIN'S
Temperance Life-Bitters, AND CHINESE BLOOD-PILLS.
Purge the Great Secret Discovered in 1838. The last few years I have been effectively tried, and yet sufferers have multiplied, and died, and why? Not because purging was not necessary, but too much has been done without the tonic to follow, and sustain the system. Purge, you must. The sickly humors of the blood must be carried off, or the accumulation of them prevented. Prevent, then, the growth of such humors.
Why do the Chinese live to such immense ages, and still retain the powers of youth or middle age? Because they purify the blood. The Chinese Blood Pills, so called because they work upon and cleanse the blood, are the standard remedy. These Pills will do it, and the Temperance Bitters, taken as directed, will strengthen the system and prevent the accumulation of the base humors which infect the blood, and which only increase by purges unless the Bitters are taken after. But then these Pills and Bitters, take weekly the Pills and daily the Bitters, and if you are or have been tormented by dyspepsia, months, or years you will find the sickly humors drawn off, and prevented from a return, and the yellow yellow hue of sickness change rapidly to the full blooming glow of health and youthful buoyancy.
There are cases so numerous of these brilliant effects, that time and space forbid an attempt to put them down. Buy and use these medicines, and use no other, and health and strength shall be yours. See wrapper and directions that come with them.
FRAUDULENT COUNTERFEITS
will be attempted. Buy no remedy of the kind unless it have my name O. C. LIN, M. D. on the wrapper, and also the notice as follows:
Entered according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1841 by THOS. CONNELL, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.
Warranted the only genuine.
Messrs. Comstock & Co. New York, are the sole wholesale Agents for the United States and all neighboring countries.
For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of South Block, and by A. P. GUILD, Exchange Street.

TO THE OLD AND YOUNG. No! Ye Red Heads & Grey! PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY.
Last India Hair Dye.
Colors the Hair and with it the Skin!!
This Dye is in form of a Powder which in plan of use is as follows: The first night turning the lightest red or grey hair to a dark brown and by repeating a second or third night to a bright jet black. Any person has, therefore with the least possible trouble, kept his hair in any dark shade or perfect black, with a positive assurance that the powder if applied to the skin will not color it. There is no trouble in removing it from the hair, as in all previous hair dyes. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair! Directions complete with the article. There is no coloring in this statement, as one can easily test.
These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated chemist Dr. Comstock author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and many other books well known and widely celebrated by the public.
This Dye is sold by COMSTOCK & Co, 71 Maiden Lane New York.
For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of South Block, A. P. GUILD, Exchange St. and by G. W. HOLDEN, West Market Place.

8100 REWARD.
ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD has been offered for months, to any one who will use a bottle of Hemp Lintment for the Piles without being cured. Of thousands sold, in no one instance has it failed of a cure. Proof overwhelming to be seen where it is sold. It is also a certain cure in nearly every case, (externally) in the following complaints:
For the Piles, For all Drops, Itch of feet, Sore throat by cancers or ulcers, or Group, Whooping Cough, Scald Head.
Tightness of the chest especially in children, Foul matter of the legs or other fungus sores however obstinate or long standing, Fresh Wounds, Chills, Lums, &c. &c.
LOOK OUT.
Some Scoundrels have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you. It is the name of COMSTOCK & Co., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that or never buy it, for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine. Sold by COMSTOCK & Co. 71 Maiden Lane, New York.
For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of South Block, and A. P. GUILD, Exchange Street.

HYSTERICAL.
A GENTLEMAN belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up to recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health, has regained his natural erect position, and has quitted his carriage, and now walks with ease. We believe this is the gentlest and most successful cure as near as possible, and there is no exaggeration in it. We will give inquiries his address, and doubt not his own feelings will excuse the liberty.
Have known these facts, though he requests his name may not appear in print. Among other similar instances, Mr. James G. Reynolds, 111 Christie street, has been restored, and will give personal assurances of the facts of his case. Both were rheumatism, and contracted cords and sinews. How has this been done?
Answer - By Hees' Nerve and Bone Lintment externally.
Sold by COMSTOCK & Co. 71 Maiden Lane New York.
For sale in Bangor by G. W. LADD, corner of South Block, A. P. GUILD, Exchange St. and by G. W. HOLDEN, West Market Place.
